India TB Pathways Analysis

Mark Onoja

intro to dataset

In this report, we analyse a dataset on India TB Pathways

Load the dataset

Show the first rows of the dataset

Tamil Nedu map

'[Map' is not recognized as an internal or external command, operable program or batch file.

Graphical representation

```
Unable to display output for mime type(s): text/html
```

Unable to display output for mime type(s): text/html

Interpretation

Tuberculosis (TB) is more present in clients with no level of education. This implies that those group of clients have no no knowledge of how TB is transmitted and are therefore s=exposed. So the higher the level of education, the lower the risk of exposure that leads to possible TB.